

Presbyterian Women in the PC(USA), Inc. Racial Equity & Cultural Humility resources

The following is a listing of available racial equity and cultural humility resources offered by Presbyterian Women (PW). For more information, visit the PW website's Racial Equity and Justice & Peace pages.

PW Paid Resources:

Order resources from www.presbyterianwomen.org/shop (search using the product #) or call 800/533-4371, Monday through Friday, 10 am to 5 pm EST.

Etchings in Diversity: Book Two

$7.00, PWR24209 (print edition)

$7.00, PWR24210 (PDF download edition)

This book of short stories is the next volume of the 1999 classic, in which PWs of different cultural backgrounds share their faith stories. It is designed for study and group discussion so that Presbyterian Women may enlarge their vision of what it means to be “an inclusive, caring community.”

Etchings in Diversity

$2.00, PWR22202 (PDF download of the 1999 edition)

In this 1999 resource, 26 Presbyterian women of different cultural backgrounds share their faith stories. A PW classic!

Practicing God’s Radical Hospitality

$9.00, PWR13060

Individuals and organizations can learn to embrace change for enrichment, transformation and growth, and, in fact, might find that they need to seek, and effect change to more effectively live the gospel message of God’s radical hospitality. This resource uses the mutual invitation process for Bible study about God’s radical hospitality.

Becoming the Beloved Community Antiracism packet

~~$14.95~~; $6.00, PWR10046

~~$24.95~~; $12.00, PWR10045 (includes DVD)

PW’s antiracism resource packet is designed to help individuals and groups engage the issue of racism, both individually and collectively.

Building an Inclusive, Caring Community Through Dialogue

$3.50, PWR03121

This PW resource guides learners through the step-by-step process for beginning a dialogue group for building communities across differences.

Building Community set

$5.00, PWR05145

Set of two Presbyterian Women resources dealing with community building. The set includes Communication Basics (unrevised) and Building an Inclusive Caring Community Through Dialogue.

PW Free Online Resources (and Blog entries):

Search by name on the PW Website or click the corresponding link below to access.

Prejudice vs. Racism* workshop

It is our prayer that this REC module helps to teach our civic responsibilities with compassion, encouraging us to speak up and recognize the need to actively work on racial equity in the USA and throughout the world. We hope that the module will help you focus, feel hopeful, and be more prayerful in your journey towards equal justice for all. Available for download.

<https://www.presbyterianwomen.org/wp-content/uploads/2020/08/Prejudice-vs-Racism-RE-Workshop-FA-2020.pdf>

Decentering Whiteness in a Multiracial Society by Stephanie M. Patterson.

Printed in the September/October 2019 issue of Horizons Magazine: The Magazine for Presbyterian Women and available for download at <https://www.presbyterianwomen.org/wp-content/uploads/2019/09/Decentering-Whiteness-in-a-Multiracial-Society-by-Stephanie-M-Patterson.pdf>

Wrestling with My Complicity in Racism by Joy Durrant (Blog)

Printed in the July/August 2019 issue of Horizons Magazine: The Magazine for Presbyterian Women and available for download at <https://www.presbyterianwomen.org/wp-content/uploads/2020/10/Wrestling-with-My-Complicity-in-Racism-by-Joy-Durrant.pdf>. Also available as a blog entry: <https://www.presbyterianwomen.org/stories/wrestling-with-my-complicity-in-racism/>

NOT Anxious to Talk About It by Hanna Cho (Blog)

<https://www.presbyterianwomen.org/stories/not-anxious-to-talk-about-it/>

Reflections by Erma Jones (Blog)

<https://www.presbyterianwomen.org/stories/reflections/>

Chicanery! by Jo-Ann Estella (Blog)

<https://www.presbyterianwomen.org/stories/chicanery/>

Waking Up in Canada by Shelagh Wirth (Blog)

<https://www.presbyterianwomen.org/stories/waking-up-in-canada/>

PW Structural Review of Presbyterian Women from an Antiracist Perspective

<https://www.presbyterianwomen.org/wp-content/uploads/2016/11/structural-review-of-PW-from-an-antiracist-perspective-2-1-2018.pdf>

DisGRACE: The Church Addresses Racism by Irene Pak Lee and Mindy Douglas

<https://www.presbyterianwomen.org/2017/05/04/disgrace-the-church-addresses-racism/>

Printed in the March/April 2017 issue of Horizons Magazine: The Magazine for Presbyterian Women

A Jury of Your Peers (Blog)

<https://www.presbyterianwomen.org/2016/12/05/a-jury-of-your-peers/>

Until all lives matter, Black Lives Matter (Blog)

<https://www.presbyterianwomen.org/2015/09/17/lives-matter-black-lives-matter/>

PW Website pages (information and calls to action):

SAY THEIR NAMES: Reaffirming Presbyterian Women’s Stance Against Racism

<https://www.presbyterianwomen.org/2020/06/05/say-their-names-reaffirming-presbyterian-womens-stance-against-racism/>

PW’s Statement on Racial Equity

<https://www.presbyterianwomen.org/2019/02/11/racial-equity-statement/>

Cultural Humility and Leadership

https://www.presbyterianwomen.org/what_we_do/develop-leaders/cultural-humility-leadership/

Racial Equity

https://www.presbyterianwomen.org/what_we_do/build-community/antiracism/

PW Leaders Are Called to the Work of Antiracism

<https://www.presbyterianwomen.org/2016/12/06/pw-leaders-called-work-antiracism/>

PW, Inc., issues statement condemning racially motivated violence in Charlottesville

<https://www.presbyterianwomen.org/2017/08/15/pw-inc-issues-statement-condemning-racially-motivated-violence-in-charlottesville/>