

PW/Horizons Bible Study Writer Nomination

Nominee Information

Name _____

Address _____

E-mail _____

Current Position/Title _____

Church/Presbytery Membership _____

Nominator Information

Name _____

Address _____

E-mail _____

Current Position/Title _____

Church/Presbytery Membership _____

Comment on these Bible study writer qualifications

1 Knowledge of scripture and Reformed theology

2 Experience in teaching, especially lay people

3 Experience in published writing, especially using scripture

4 Commitment to gender equality and to the use of inclusive language for God and people

5 Active participation in a congregation

Comment on your experience of the person's work (workshop, class, book, article, other)

Important

1. Contact the nominee to ensure she is interested in being considered as a Bible study writer.
2. Consider including names and contact information of others who could serve as references.
3. Include the nominee's resume and a published writing sample. (Bible study lesson/book/article in a magazine, newsletter, website/Sunday school or other church curriculum/sermon)
4. Email the nomination and supporting information to Cheri Harper, PW Program Manager, at cheri.harper@pcusa.org.

Information for writers

PW/Horizons Bible studies include

- Introduction of 450 words
- Nine lessons of 2000 words per lesson
 - Each lesson includes
 - Main Idea statement of one or two sentences
 - Introduction or summary paragraph
 - Opening and/or Closing Prayer of approximately 50 words
 - Seven to ten Discussion Questions (not included in the 2000 word count)
 - Footnotes/References to works cited
- Annotated bibliography of eight to ten titles for further reading and study.